Japanese Drum Performance and Traditional Chinese Performing Arts Unite at 50th Anniversary Ceremony for Nakano Singapore

Nakano Singapore (Pte) Ltd (Location: The Adelphi, 179803 Singapore; Representative: Kiyoshi Kataoka; hereinafter "Nakano Singapore"), a subsidiary of 92-year-old company Nakano Corporation (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director and President: Takashi Iizuka; hereinafter the "Company"), celebrated the 50th year of its founding at an anniversary ceremony on Friday, November 7, 2025.

Among the 160 persons in attendance were Nakano Singapore Managing Director Kiyoshi Kataoka, Nakano Singapore employees and their families and friends, presidents of the Company's overseas subsidiaries, and, from the Company, Honorary Chairman Yoshikazu Oshima, President Takashi Iizuka, and executives and employees.

The ceremony opened with a powerful and striking performance on Japanese drums, followed by the awarding of commendations for long service. This was a time to honor employees who have contributed to the development of Nakano Singapore over the years and to share the stories of their efforts and achievements. A performance of bian lian, a traditional Chinese dramatic art, further raised the energy of the ceremony.

The ceremony was filled with a gorgeous atmosphere

■ Greetings by the Managing Director of Nakano Singapore at the 50th anniversary ceremony

In an address to the participants, Nakano Singapore Managing Director Kiyoshi Kataoka expressed gratitude to employees and their families, before concluding with a new determination for the future. "For 50 years, we have grown through numerous challenges and achievements. All of our successes have been built through the dedication, teamwork, and passion of our employees. At the time of our founding, we started with factories and other industrial construction projects. Today, we are highly regarded in Singapore as a capable Japanese general contractor that undertakes a wide range of complex projects including private condominiums, hotels, and data centers. Your efforts and dedication are the driving force by which our company has been able to adapt flexibly and to continually grow and succeed in the rapidly changing Singapore market. Work in the construction industry involves numerous hardships. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to our employees' families and loved ones for having so greatly supported the Nakano family. Embracing Nakano's basic philosophy of safety, quality, integrity, and teamwork, we will now build a new chapter for the next generation."
